DETAILED ACTION
Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-43, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Freeny, Jr U.S Patent 6, 970, 850).

As per claim 1, Freeny, Jr discloses a network enabled online transaction risk management system comprising;
at least one financial services server for processing financial transaction requests received over said network for at least one customer account wherein preferences for said at least one customer account are remotely configurable over said network (see column 6 lines 38-48 and column 13 lines 39-65 and column 14 lines 1-24 and column 9 line 65 and column 10 lines 1-47) at least one client in processing communications with said at least one financial services server over said network including means for remote configuration of said at least one customer account using one or more customer preferences;
at least one point of sales terminal in processing communications with said at least one financial services server including means for performing financial transactions with said financial services server.(Note abstract and see column 6 lines 38-48 and column 13 lines 39-65 and column 14 lines 1-24 and column 9 line 65 and column 10 lines 1-47).

As per claim 2, Freeny, Jr discloses wherein said one or more customer preferences includes notification methods and said system comprises notification means for performing said notification methods. (see column 6 lines 38-48 and column
